

MahaNakhon and SCB Hold

'Living By Design, featuring The Ritz-Carlton Residences, Bangkok'

PACE Development and Siam Commercial Bank (SCB) hosted 'Living By Design, featuring The Ritz-Carlton Residences, Bangkok' as an exclusive event for SCB private banking customers. The reception was a chance to get a glimpse of the ultra luxury Residences while hearing the ideas and inspirations behind their interior design and decoration from Mr. Simon Rawlings, design principal from David Collins Studio. For dinner, the guests were provided by a special menu from Dean & DeLuca and then given a tour of the Residences.

Mr. Sorapoj Techakraisri, CEO of PACE said, "We believe SCB's private banking customers are increasingly looking for super luxury residences that stand out for their quality design.

We are confident that The Ritz-Carlton Residences, Bangkok is exactly what they need, with an outstanding location in the heart of Bangkok's central business district."

Mr. Simon Rawlings of David Collins Studio said, "One of the key elements in the design of The Ritz-Carlton Residences, Bangkok is focusing on every detail of the design. While it is beautiful and features the highest standards, we have paid close attention to the modern lifestyle in Thailand. We have selected quality materials from overseas and combined them with local craftsmanship whose design and quality are of international standards."

